Prayer Topics for the Coming Week

Please pray for:

- Netherbury in our team cycle of prayer. For Churchwarden Jacky, the PCC and congregation.
 - new leaders for our youth work and volunteers to run a monthly youth group.
 - those preparing for confirmation.
 - the next steps of setting the vision for 2020.
 - those busy harvesting and those for whom the harvest has failed.
 - our government, politicians and leaders.
- Lord in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Eco Pause for Thought: All about clothes....

Go for clothes made of natural fibre. Avoid man made fabric pollution.

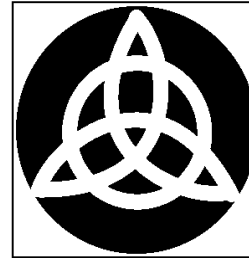

Outside our regular services there are many opportunities to pray for God's kingdom to come in to our communities.

Collect

Almighty God,
who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself:
help us to proclaim the good news of your love,
that all who hear it may be drawn to you;
through him who was lifted up on the cross,
and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

God our creator,
you feed your children with the true manna,
the living bread from heaven:
let this holy food sustain us through our earthly pilgrimage until we come to that place where hunger and thirst are no more;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading — 1 Timothy 1.12-17

I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me, because he judged me faithful and appointed me to his service, even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and a man of violence. But I received mercy because I had acted ignorantly in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed for me with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. The saying is sure and worthy of full acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners – of whom I am the foremost. But for that very reason I received mercy, so that in me, as the foremost, Jesus Christ might display the utmost patience, making me an example to those who would come to believe in him for eternal life. To the King of the ages, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Reading — Luke 15.1-10

All the tax-collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, ‘This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them.’

So he told them this parable: ‘Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, “Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.” Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, “Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.” Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents.’

Mapperton House—Volunteers needed

If you have an interest in history and enjoy meeting people, perhaps you might enjoy being a volunteer guide. Stewards and other volunteers are also needed. Travel expenses and light refreshments will be provided. For further information contact Paula: 01308 742133 or paula@mapperton.com

The Hub

I would like to say a few ‘Thank you’s this week—to all those who have helped with the series of meetings across the team to consult on ‘Church 2030’ and to Anne in the office who will undertake the major task of collating the comments and responses. Also to Harry Neary for all the work he puts into our communication network, especially as I have received a number of very kind comments lately about our website and its ease of use. I would also like to thank all of you who have supported me over the past few months with the many funerals we have been privileged to have conducted. A special thank you to those who have stepped up and helped with the transition from having no Churchwardens at both Burstock and South Perrott. Finally, thank you to the Billen family for all the hard work and time that went into organising the ‘Sing Sankey’ event last Wednesday at Toller Porcorum.

We are about to enter the Harvest Thanksgiving season and there are services and Harvest suppers and teas across the parishes - you will find information on these in the village pages of the Team News.

Jane and myself will be on our annual summer break from this coming Thursday and I will be returning to work on Saturday 5th October. During this time Jo will assume control of The Hub and all other things!
