Collect

Almighty God,
you have made us for yourself,
and our hearts are restless till they find
their rest in you:
pour your love into our hearts and
draw us to yourself,
and so bring us at last to your heavenly city
where we shall see you face to face;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Lord, we pray that your grace
may always precede and follow us,
and make us continually to be given
to all good works;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading — 2 Timothy 2. 8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David – that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

- If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
- If we endure, we will also reign with him;
- If we deny him, he will also deny us;
- If we are faithless, he remains faithful – for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Gospel Reading — Luke 17.11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, ‘Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!’ When he saw them, he said to them, ‘Go and show yourselves to the priests.’ And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, ‘Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?’ Then he said to the Samaritan, ‘Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.’

What a wonderful confirmation service we shared last Sunday, led by Bishop Karen. It was wonderful to see eleven disciples confirming their baptismal vows and following Jesus. I would like to thank Jo for putting the service together and coordinating the preparation classes, Barbara Simmonds and Fiona for their support with the classes and a big thank you to Barbara for knitting at least ten Holy Octopuses (if you want to know more about these please ask Jo). Thank you also to Martin and Beaminster Choir for their wonderful lead with the music and liturgy. I was really delighted that so many of our church communities came and supported the candidates, but saddened that some were missing. If you would like to enquire about confirmation for next year please speak to Jo or myself and we will explain all.

As part of our team wide approach to Fairtrade, Dr Gillian Perrott will be holding a Fairtrade Stall selling Fairtrade Christmas cards and products from next Sunday in Beaminster. If other churches in the team would like to know more about Fairtrade, then please contact Gillian. Her phone number can be found in the Team News under Lay Pastoral Assistants on the centre page.

There are still a number of Harvest Festival teas and suppers to be held across the team and you can find information on these in the Team News if you would like to support them. David

Eco Pause for Thought: Money — a difficult subject!

If we are able and over a certain age, do we choose to pay the bus fare? This helps both the council and the bus company.
