For more details of local events, please see Team News

Wed 28 July 10am Eucharist St Mary's, Beaminster

The Hub

Following the lifting of lockdown restrictions last Monday, my observations at this early stage are that many people are continuing to observe many of the rules we have been living by. The updated guidance from the National Church contains most of what was expected but is clear that the responsibility, including legal responsibilities for any changes and their consequences, lie solely with the Incumbent and PCCs so my advice to you all remains as outlined last week but with the additions in bold.

- Please continue to sanitise your hands on entering the church and after any contact with someone else.
- Please continue to wear your mask whilst moving around in church but if you wish, remove it whilst the services are in progress.
- During periods of singing please respect those who see this as an unnecessary risk of spreading the infection through droplet transmission. You may consider continuing to sing wearing your masks.
- We will continue to receive communion in one kind only for the present time. I will consult with CWs again in August on this to gauge congregations' feelings.
- As we are continuing to display the track and trace QR codes we are required to continue recording the paper form of contacts for the present time.

Once more thank you for your continued support at this time.

Green Year B

Collect

Merciful God,
whose holy apostle Saint James,
leaving his father and all that he had,
was obedient to the calling
of your Son Jesus Christ
and followed him even to death:
help us, forsaking the false attractions
of the world,
to be ready at all times to answer your call
without delay;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Almighty God,
who on the day of Pentecost
sent your Holy Spirit to the apostles
with the wind from heaven
and in tongues of flame,
filling them with joy and boldness
to preach the gospel:
by the power of the same Spirit
strengthen us to witness to your truth
and to draw everyone
to the fire of your love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading — Acts 11. 27–12.2

At that time prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. One of them named Agabus stood up and predicted by the Spirit that there would be a severe famine over all the world; and this took place during the reign of Claudius. The disciples determined that according to their ability, each would send relief to the believers living in Judea; this they did, sending it to the elders by Barnabas and Saul.

About that time King Herod laid violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He had James, the brother of John, killed with the sword.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 20. 20–28

The mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, and kneeling before him, she asked a favour of him. And he said to her, 'What do you want?' She said to him, 'Declare that these two sons of mine will sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your kingdom.' But Jesus answered, 'You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink?' They said to him, 'We are able.' He said to them, 'You will indeed drink my cup, but to sit at my right hand and at my left, this is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father.'

When the ten heard it, they were angry with the two brothers. But Jesus called them to him and said, 'You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. It will not be so among you; but whoever wishes to be great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be your slave; just as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many.'

'Community of the Annunciation Prayer'

Outside our regular services there are other opportunities to pray for God's kingdom to come in to our communities.
