

Trinity Sunday

Proverbs 8. 1-4, 22-31

Psalm 8

Romans 5. 1-5

John 16. 12-15

Gold/White Year C

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
 you have given us your servants grace,
 by the confession of a true faith,
 to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity
 and in the power of the divine majesty
 to worship the Unity:
 keep us steadfast in this faith,
 that we may evermore be defended from
 all adversities;
 through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
 who is alive and reigns with you,
 in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
 one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Almighty and eternal God,
 you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
 and live and reign in the perfect unity of love:
 hold us firm in this faith,
 that we may know you in all your ways
 and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory,
 who are three Persons yet one God,
 now and for ever.

THE HUB — By Revd. Canon David Baldwin

A reminder to Deanery Synod members that the next meeting of the Deanery Synod will be taking place at the village hall in Hawkchurch on Monday 27th June starting at 7.00 pm. There will be drinks available prior to the meeting. As we have no secretary at this moment the Lay Chair, Janet Jackson will be sending the calling papers out in the next few days. If you do not receive them please let me know as soon as possible.

The Team Council will be meeting on Monday 18th July in St Mary's Beaminster. I have invited Anna Hardy, the new Diocesan Giving Advisor, to attend. Part of Anna's role is to help parishes to raise funds and I thought it would be useful if she could help us to think about this in a fresh way. Anna's post is totally funded by a grant from the national church and comes to us at no cost to the parishes. This will be an open meeting for anyone who would like to come and meet Anna and share in the discussions and learn from her expertise.

I recently purchased a copy of a new book called Living Life in Common - Stories from the Pilsdon Community. The book is an oral history of the life and history of the Pilsdon Community over the past sixty years. It talks about the characters who have called upon its services and the challenges that such a community brings. If you would like a copy priced at £12.50 then you can order it through Little Toller Books in Beaminster Square or I am sure that you can find it online.

First Reading — Romans 5. 1-5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God’s love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Gospel Reading— John 16. 12-15

Jesus said to his disciples: ‘I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.’

Eco Pause for Thought: Trees..... The Woodland Trust is offering a tree pack for schools and community groups. Apply now for delivery of seedlings in November (planting time).

Welcoming Bishop Stephen

Bishop Karen has invited us to join in nine days of prayer, a novena, as we wait for the arrival of the new Bishop of Salisbury, Stephen Lake. Bishop Stephen will be welcomed to the Diocese in a service at Salisbury Cathedral at 3pm on Sunday 19th June. All are welcome. The novena is available on our website and begins on Saturday 11th June. Paper copies can be picked up in the church office.
