A few weeks ago I wrote about the quiet day leading into Advent on the theme of 'Watching and Waiting'. This will be on Saturday 19th November, Netherbury Village Hall and Reading Room, starting with Coffee and Welcome at 9.00 am. There will be a Soup and Bread lunch provided and the day will conclude at 2.30 pm. I am delighted that we will be led in our thoughts by The Rev Dr David Campbell, Lead Chaplain at Sherborne School and a great friend to the Beaminster Team. If you would like to book a place for the day please speak to myself or Mrs Jacky Bush who is helping me with coordinating the day.

It is with great sadness that I inform you of the death of Mrs Wendy Simmons last weekend. Wendy was a member of the congregation at Beaminster since moving here to live. She served on the PCC for many years and was PCC Treasurer until she stood down at this year's Annual Meeting. She was a great help and support to myself and a wonderful friend to many through her work with the Mothers' Union in Beaminster. I have passed on our condolences to Gordon. Funeral arrangements have not yet been announced and I will pass these on once we have them.

I received a letter last week from Bishop Stephen inviting me to serve a second term as a member of the Cathedral's Chapter of the College of Canons. I feel deeply humbled and privileged to have received this and I see it as an honour on behalf of all of you across the team for the wonderful work you do in the name of the Lord in this part of the kingdom.

Collect

Almighty God,
you have made us for yourself,
and our hearts are restless till they find
their rest in you:
pour your love into our hearts and draw us
to yourself,
and so bring us at last to your heavenly city
where we shall see you face to face;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Lord, we pray that your grace
may always precede and follow us,
and make us continually to be given to
all good works;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading — 2 Timothy 2. 8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David – that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

- If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
- if we endure, we will also reign with him;
- if we deny him, he will also deny us;
- if we are faithless, he remains faithful – for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Gospel Reading— Luke 17. 11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, ‘Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!’ When he saw them, he said to them, ‘Go and show yourselves to the priests.’ And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, ‘Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?’ Then he said to the Samaritan, ‘Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well.’
