Wed 2 Nov 10am Eucharist to celebrate All Souls' Day
St Mary's, Beaminster

11-12.30pm Walk in Wednesday St Mary's,
Beaminster

THE HUB — By Revd. Canon David Baldwin

This week I have a number of reminders.

This afternoon Sunday 30th is our annual memorial service for All Souls' Tide. We have received a number of names of dearly departed loved ones to be read out in prayer. If you are reading this on Thursday or Friday before the event you can still add names by emailing or calling the team office or myself. We look forward to welcoming families that we have supported through funeral ministry over the past few years and hope that members of the church family will come and give support.

Tomorrow Team Council meets in Beaminster at 7.00 pm and we will be welcoming Anna Hardy to talk with us about Stewardship, outreach and fundraising and especially about how we can benefit from providing card machines for visitors. This is an open meeting for any one to attend with their parish reps.

Deanery Synod also meets in Beaminster on Tuesday 8th November at 7.00 pm and is open to Treasurers to attend alongside elected members as Anna Hardy will be the guest speaker at this meeting too.

Remembrance Sunday is on the 13th November. Please check the Team News services page for times of service in your parish as they may differ to the usual pattern for that day. A reminder that the custom in Burstock is that they keep their act of remembrance the week before so as not to clash with Broadwindsor and Blackdown.

Collect

Almighty God,
you have knit together your elect
in one communion and fellowship
in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord:
grant us grace so to follow your blessed saints
in all virtuous and godly living that we may come to those inexpressible joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever

Post Communion

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all
good things:
may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth
be welcomed with all your saints
to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

First Reading — Ephesians 1. 11-23

In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance, having been destined according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to his counsel and will, so that we, who were the first to set our hope on Christ, might live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, when you had heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation, and had believed in him, were marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit; this is the pledge of our inheritance towards redemption as God's own people, to the praise of his glory.

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

CHARITY CHRISTMAS CARDS ordered from Traidcraft are one way that we can support those in underdeveloped countries where many are living on the breadline or starving because of climate change. There will be a table display of cards for you to choose and order from at St Mary's Beaminster after the 9.30 Sunday services on 6 and 13 November and at Walk in Wednesday 9 November from 10:45 to 12 noon.

Gospel Reading— Luke 6. 20-31

Then Jesus looked up at his disciples and said:

'Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.

'Blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled.

'Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

'Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice on that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.

'But woe to you who are rich,
for you have received your consolation.

'Woe to you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

'Woe to you who are laughing now,
for you will mourn and weep.

'Woe to you when all speak well of you, for that is what their ancestors did to the false prophets.

'But I say to you that listen, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. If anyone strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also; and from anyone who takes away your coat do not withhold even your shirt. Give to everyone who begs from you; and if anyone takes away your goods, do not ask for them again. Do to others as you would have them do to you.
