

THE HUB — By Revd. Canon David Baldwin

There are a number of church based activities next weekend that you may like to support. On Saturday and Sunday 1.00 - 5.00 pm there is the annual Netherbury Open Gardens with homemade lunches available in the village hall between 12.30 and 2.00 pm. Admission is by ticket which is valid for both days priced at £7.50 with children under 13 free. There is also free parking and the event is sponsored by Groves Nurseries.

The annual Churches Count on Nature will take place on Sunday 11th in St Mary's Churchyard from 2.00 - 4.00 pm This follows on from last year's very successful event. There will be 'experts' on hand to help identify the plants, insects and other forms of nature within the churchyard.

The Archbishop of Canterbury will be visiting the Diocese this Friday to Sunday. You can find the full visit itinerary on the Diocesan website. He will be in Weymouth on Saturday along with Bishop Karen. There will be a service of celebration led by Archbishop Justin on the Cathedral Green next Sunday, gathering at 3.30 pm and ending by 5.00 pm, to which everyone within the Diocesan family is invited to join in.

Over the past two weeks I have put out a request for conversations regarding volunteers for intercession leaders, Lay Worship Leaders/Lay Pastoral Assistants. I would like to thank the two people who have responded with polar opposite thoughts....It's the Vicars Job!.....I would be very pleased to help. I am aware that Jo has also had some conversations. Please continue to pray about your response to what God may be asking you to do and please feel that you can talk to us about what the roles may include.

Tomorrow (Monday) Archdeacon Penny will be licensing Churchwardens from across the Archdeaconry at a service in St Mary's Beaminster beginning at 2.00 pm. This is the first of four such services in different venues. Please pray for all Churchwardens, for the responsibility that they carry on behalf of all of you across the team.

Isaiah 40. 12-17, 27-31

Psalm 8

2 Corinthians 13. 11-13

Matthew 28. 16-20

Gold/White Year A

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God,
you have given us your servants grace,
by the confession of a true faith,
to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity
and in the power of the divine majesty
to worship the Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith,
that we may evermore be defended
from all adversities;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion

Almighty and eternal God,
you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
and live and reign in the perfect unity of love:
hold us firm in this faith,
that we may know you in all your ways
and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory,
who are three Persons yet one God,
now and for ever.

First Reading — 2 Corinthians 13. 11-13

Brothers and sisters, put things in order, listen to my appeal, agree with one another, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the saints greet you.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Gospel Reading — Matthew 28. 16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had directed them. When they saw him, they worshipped him; but some doubted. And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.'

Eco Pause for Thought... If you want to keep your long grass, wild flowers, insects as a result of No Mow May, cut paths through so they are still there to view, maybe with a seat nearby!
